

International Workshop

DEPENDENCIES AND TRANSFORMATIVE CIRCULATIONS IN THE ASIAN WORLD (16th-18th centuries)

May 10 2024

Online
via Teams

PROGRAMME

12:00 CEST Introduction. Marina Torres Trimállez (KU Leuven, Belgium)

12:15 Claude Chevalyre (Institut d'Asie Orientale CNRS, France)

“Global slavery, dependency, and Eurocentrism”

13: 00 James Fujitani (University of Nottingham, Ningbo, China)

“Second thoughts about Sino-Portuguese concubine slavery”

13:15 Rômulo da Silva Ehalt (Max Planck Institute for Legal History, Germany)

“Taxonomies of Japanese Slavery: Jesuit debates and Tokugawa prohibitions (1590s-1620s)”

13:30 Discussion. Angela Schottenhammer (KU Leuven, Belgium)

14:00 15 minutes break

14:15 Patricia Souza de Faria (Rural Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, Brasil)

“Circulations and Escapes of Enslaved Subjects in Portuguese India (16th and 17th Centuries)”

14:30 Nicholas Sy (University of the Philippines Diliman, Philippines)

“Family formation among South Asian slaves in early modern Spanish Colonial Philippines”

14:45 Lisa Phongsavath (Bonn Center for Dependency and Slavery Studies, Germany)

“Trafficking of Asian children in Siam: networks and entanglements (1665-1765)”

15:00 Discussion. Alexandre Coello (University Pompeu Fabra, Spain)

15:30 Conclusions. Marina Torres Trimállez (KU Leuven, Belgium)

Co-funded by the European Union

in collaboration with

European Research Council

Grant Agreement. No. 101026462

Grant Agreement. No. 833143

Organizer: Marina Torres Trimállez

Contact and registration: marina.torrestrimallez@kuleuven.be